

Pat Steir
Waterfalls

Where the Galleries Are

These three neighborhoods are hubs for fine art. — ZACHARY CLARK

UNION SQUARE Home to the highest concentration of well-known galleries in the city, this should be your first stop if you're limited on time. Meyerovich gallery specializes in American and European paintings, works on paper, prints and sculpture by modern and contemporary masters, including Picasso, Matisse and Lichtenstein.

251 Post St., Ste. 400, meyerovich.com

